SOURCE:

1. Early in 1951, the village of Frideshovo (N 48-29, E 22-45), Mukachevskiy Rayon, was renamed Kirovo.
2. The villages of Podhorjany, Rosvigovo, Podhorod, and Polanok have been incorporated into the city of Mukachevo.¹
3. Ploshchad Stalina in Mukachevo (N 48-26, E 22-43) was formerly called Ploshchad Masaryka and is still occasionally referred to by that name. However, most inhabitants use new names rather than old after changes are made in street or square designations. Inhabitants often use the Magyar word korso instead of the word ploshchad when referring to the squares in Mukachevo.

1. Comment: These are Czech spellings of the villages in question.
